

Dear <<First Name>>,

Grass has magically appeared as the Rancho Jurupa Regional Sports Park nears completion

The Rancho Jurupa Regional Sports Park (yes, that is the official name!) in Jurupa Valley, CA is a new sports park that will bring exciting new opportunities for fitness, recreation, and overall community wellness to the citizens of Riverside County. The complex is a key component in RivCoPark's on-going mission to develop and manage the Riverside County Regional Park and Open-Space District for the inspiration, use, and enjoyment of all people. Complex amenities include: 4 full-sized synthetic fields with lights, 2 full-sized natural turf fields with lights, and 9 other natural turf fields ranging in size to accommodate all field-sport needs. The Rancho Jurupa Regional Sports Park also boasts a snack shack, numerous shade structures, and picnic benches for those who need a break from the fierce competition. Once the Sports Park opens in early spring of 2012, residents of Riverside County and Southern California in general will be introduced to amenities and sporting opportunities new to our region. The Sports Park will be a premier destination for sports enthusiasts of all ages and skill levels.

The Recreation staff will be operating this new venue and are planning the first field allocation meeting in December. This new quality venue provides opportunities to expand active recreation and expand our growing services. Our tentative opening date is currently set for March 2012! Stay tuned for more information about this exciting new venue...dust off your cleats and get ready to play!
